Arizona is a "Community Property" state which generally means that all property goods, salaries and debts acquired earned or contracted after marriage belong, by law, to the marital community. "Sole and Separate Property" is generally defined as those goods, property, income and debts acquired prior to marriage or by gift or inheritance after marriage. If you are applying for individual credit in your own name, are not married and are not relying on alimony, child support, or separate maintenance payments, or on the income or assets of another person as the basis for repayment of the credit requested, do not complete the co-application portion of the application. In all other situations, complete all sections of the application providing information about the applicant, a joint applicant or user, or the person on whose alimony, support, or maintenance payments or income or assets you are relying.
